

GO GUIDE

FROM THEATRE TO FOOD, COMEDY TO POP, WE PICK THE 10 HOTTEST TICKETS FROM THE WEEK AHEAD

For more weekend ideas standard.co.uk/GO

Anthea Hamilton: Tate Britain Commission 2018

Tate Britain, SW1.
Mar 22-Oct 7
The former Turner Prize nominee transforms Tate Britain with an immersive installation.
tate.org.uk

BMW Tate Live

Tate Modern, SE1, Mar 16-25
Tate Modern's innovative live exhibition returns for 10 days and six nights of performances and installations.
tate.org.uk

Belle & Sebastian

Troxy, E1, Tonight
The ever popular indie Scots play two nights here off the back of their new album.
troxy.co.uk

Alba Hodsoll: Seed

Cob Gallery, NW1, Until Apr 7

An exploration of eroticism and aesthetics through sculpture and painting.
cobgallery.com

Russell Howard

Albert Hall, SW7, Mar 20
The chipper comic hosts the Teenage Cancer Trust Comedy Night.
royalalberthall.com

Rivoli Ballroom Pop-Up Cinema

350 Brockley Road, SE4, Tonight
London's last remaining 1950s ballroom hosts a pop-up screening of Pulp Fiction.
croftonparkpictures.com

Artist Alba Hodsoll launched her exhibition Seed at Camden's Cob Gallery last night. The sculptures and paintings use large coco de mer seeds. They look pretty saucy. "My last show was all about sex in pornography, but in this one I wanted to be gentler," Hodsoll says. "Sexuality is about so much more than sex."