TAHNEE LONSDALE

Born in 1982, UK

Lives and works in LA, USA

Working between the figurative and the abstract, Tahnee Lonsdale produces paintings that are intimate, agonised, tender and formidable. Developed through an intuitive process of drawing in response to particular emotional states, her canvases are populated by distinctively feminine forms whose swooping, structural physicality is an assertion of both power and vulnerability. Recent paintings feature illustrate the artist's engagement with spiritual practices, the metaphysical or mysticism, and the insights they have revealed to her. Additionally, narrative is driven by characters and their interactions, whilst formal composition and framing equally build drama. Tahnee Lonsdale's fantastical narrative tableaux, from the quotidian to the cosmic, are privy to compositions that convey intimate and passionate extremes while their elements evolve, reflecting the flux of a mental state faced with our changing world.
